The IAMP Board of Directors is excited to announce the 2023 IAMP Convention and Trade Show will be held on February 23-25, 2023, at Effingham, Illinois, at the Keller Convention Center. We are looking forward to having a joint convention with the Indiana Meat Packers and Processors Association in 2023. A great line-up of speakers, a fantastic trade show, and meats competition will highlight the convention. Watch for the Winter and Pre-convention newsletters for the workshop and convention information.
